

Specification Amendment

In the specification, page 27, beginning in line 18, please amend with the replacement paragraph as follows:

The components are boiled at 210°F until the temperature begins to undergo a marked rise. The heating process is discontinued after a temperature of approximately 235-240°F is reached. The mixture is then allowed to cool to room temperature. Stirring is continuous throughout the cooking process.